

The Saturday of Lazarus

Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom

Introit: Resurrectional, as on Sundays.

Troparion (tone 1): In confirming the common Resurrection, O Christ God, Thou didst raise up Lazarus from the dead before Thy Passion. Wherefore, we also, like the children bearing the symbols of victory, cry to Thee, the Vanquisher of death: Hosanna in the highest; blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

EpistleThe reading is from the Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Hebrews(Heb 12:28 - 13:8)*

Brethren, receiving a Kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace whereby we may serve God acceptably, with reverence and godly fear. For our God is a consuming fire.

Let brotherly love continue. Be not forgetful to entertain strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. Remember those who are in bonds as though you were bound with them, and those who suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body. Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled; but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

Let your manner of living be without covetousness, and be content with such things as ye have. For He saith, "I will never leave thee"; so that we may boldly say, "The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me." Remember those who have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the Word of God. Follow their faith, considering the outcome of their manner of living. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, and today, and for ever.

Alleluia (tone 5)Verse 1: The Lord is King; He is clothed with majesty (Ps 93:1).Verse 2: He established the world which shall not be shaken (Ps 93:1).

Irmos: With all peoples let us honour and glorify the pure Theotokos, who conceived within her womb the divine Fire and yet was not consumed; and let us magnify her in never-silent hymns.
